FLABOB AIRPORT, RIVERSIDE (RIR) www.flabobairport.org

Flabob Airport is an old airport in Riverside and has the oldest and a very active EAA Chapter, #1. From 1925 on, Roman Warren then Flavio Madariaga made Flabob more a village than just an airport. It became a gathering place for pilots during the golden age of aviation. Now home for the Tom Wathen Center & Preparatory Academy. Enjoy Saturday morning touring the airport, vintage and modern aircraft.

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE MUSEUM

The March Field Air Museum is an aviation museum adjacent to March Air Reserve Base. The museum has over 70 aircraft on display.

HISTORIC MISSION INN

This historic, grand, Spanish Mission-style hotel is a 5-minute walk from the Riverside Marriott Hotel. The Mission Inn Museum is the starting point for all docent-led Mission Inn tours and features an extensive museum store with one of a kind products from local artists, unique Mission Inn souvenirs, in addition to a wide selection of books on Mission Inn and local history. Multiple tours are available.
