Dinner Theater

“While the story of Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow’s deadly relationship is part of Americana, this musical explores a more romantic perspective than the usual shoot-‘em up. In Depression-era Texas, the couple meets over Bonnie’s broken-down car. At this time in the story Bonnie is a waitress with aspirations to act in film, and Clyde Barrow just broke out of prison with his brother Buck. As the two Texans with unbridled imagination, they begin robbing banks to make their dreams of fame come true. But as the duo become wanted fugitives, and their crimes escalate from robbery to murder, they find their way to the nation’s list of public enemies. Bonnie and Clyde is a thrilling and sexy musical with a non-traditional score, combining blues, gospel and rockabilly music to a perfect, crowd pleasing effect. This Tony-nominated musical from the legendary Frank Wildhorn (Jekyll & Hyde, Dracula, Civil War) is surely not to be missed.”
